The corpses were buried inside the foundation of the building suspected to be a church under construction and totally covered with concrete.

It was gathered that construction of the building whose owner could not be immediately ascertained, commenced recently and was at the foundation level before the gory discovery Monday.

Unconfirmed sources said one of the workers at the site, who heard about the burial of the deceased inside the foundation before it was concretized, alerted security operatives about the evil act.

Policemen were said to have after receiving the tip-off mobilized some labourers who dug the foundation open and discovered the corpses.

The discovery attracted several passersby and motorists plying the road to the scene.

They expressed shock at the discovery and called on security agents to do everything possible to fish out the perpetrators of the act, who they suspected could be ritualists.

Some residents of the neighbourhood alleged that the building believed to be a proposed place of worship, belonged to a ritualist who disguised to be a man of God.

The State Police spokesman, Mr Ebere Amaraizu, who confirmed the report said the corpses were recovered from the site following a tip-off.

"On information, three decomposing bodies were discovered and full scale investigations have commenced with a view to unmasking circumstances surrounding the incident," he said.

Meanwhile, fear has gripped residents of Ugwuaji as security operatives were said to have swung into action to crackdown on the ritualist and his cohorts who killed and buried the deceased

One of those who were at the scene described the act as "wicked and the most inhuman action I have seen in my entire life."

"I was traveling when I saw the crowd there and had to stop. This is wickedness of the highest order. Accusing fingers are being pointed at a particular new church along that road; I don't know who did this; but I must say that the wicked will never go unpunished.

"People no longer value human lives; for whatever purpose this was done, it is heart breaking", he lamented.

What is the name of the church? Where is it located? And who put the dead bodies there? We need a detailed and investigative journalism to conclude this story. I can't wait to see the perpetrators been brought to book.

God will continue to exposed the ritualist that pretended to be like pastor. The south east region needed more revival messages many of them are too money conscious.

Don't insult a whole generation in your post, learn to be servel when coming to a public place, there are more money mongers in your tribe more than the Igbos. Nobody is supporting evil been perpetuated daily around the world, God will certainly pay everyone @the appropriate time.

Who's stopping Biafra from leaving Nigeria. I only pity the gullible ones among you because the smarter ones are the real beneficiaries of your misguided agitation for secession. I think uwazuruike had played a fast one on you. Now smarter nnamdi kanu is out to make his own money from the majority mumus. Follow the due process to secede and you shall be given. The main problem facing Nigeria was initiated by the Igbos. The late great Ojukwu had said before he died that the first Biafra was a mistake and that another Biafra would be a graver mistake. Just think of being landlocked, with no outlet to the sea and being surrounded by hostile neighbours. Think of your brothers and sisters married to other Nigerians with children. What would be their fate? When the Igbos had the majority in juicy appointments and posts there was no IPOB but just because Nigerians didn't vote for the ineffective effeminate Jonathan, the greedy ones initiated ipob. Is there any coordination, collaboration, unity of action and joint purposefulness between massob and ipob.

That local govt chairman who resides near the lagoon and was videoed during rituals on a black horse, making incantations and bathing with blood was also Igbo abi?? What about those slaughter houses with human bones and people tied up waiting to be slaughtered for rituals in a forest in Ibadan?? That too was in Igbo land abi??? And this is how your pastors misguide u from d truth just to full there pockets. The most bitter truth in this life to all Christians is "God is ONE God, he begets not, nor is He begotten. Now this is what your pastors would always abscond from d scripture, read this John 17, v3 "And this is life eternal that they might know Thee, the ONE and ONLY true God, and Jesus Christ whom thy has sent" read also John 20, v17. "I ascend unto my Father and your Father, unto my God and your God". Any pastor who fails to preach this or fail to preach against nakedness should give u d reasoning that he is after worldly life. Peace unto u

The Story is fake,if you can convince me by telling me the name of the Church and the name of the pastor and the name of the person that alerted the security agent. people can frame some sweet stories to condemn the Church of God.

You can read this portion of the story, (The State Police spokesman, Mr Ebere Amaraizu, who confirmed the report) The name of the police was mentioned.

Then read this portion and reason well (Some residents of the neighbourhood alleged that the building believed to be a proposed place of worship, belonged to a ritualist who disguised to be a man of God) there is no any name mention. i can not believe this story. prove me wrong or right.
